Music Night

On Thursday 17 August, I attended the annual Music Night concert. There were over 250 audience members who watched and listened to a wonderful night of music as the various bands and ensembles played. The students studying VCE music also performed. It was a lovely evening and a great way to end the week. Thank you to the Music staff for their work with the students, to the staff who attended to assist and to the families who attended to support the performances. Music is a very important part of the life of the College and the performances are always outstanding. Congratulations to MaryAnne Dumitrache, the Music Captain, who hosted the evening.

Many students travel by public transport. It is important that students have valid myki cards when travelling on trains and buses. We have received information from the Department of Transport and Planning about a new app that enables an instant top up of the myki card balance.

You do not have to register an account in order to use the top up feature.

However, they strongly recommend that you do register your myki so you can protect your balance and take advantage of other PTV App features such as auto top up or managing multiple cards.

Humanities Week

Humanities week was such a blast!

Last week, the Humanities team put together some activities that focused on the celebration of History, Commerce and Geography subjects. For History and Commerce, quizzes were created for students to complete. Both quizzes aimed to show the diversity of these subjects and the types of topics offered at this school.

The History quiz included questions on topics ranging from Ancient Egypt to the Russian Revolution. The Commerce quiz contained questions covering Legal studies, Business management and Economics. It was so great to see students from all year levels participating and having a go and getting so many answers correct!

Congratulations to Kate Edwards (Year 7) for getting 100% in the Commerce quiz and Caitlin Rowling (Year 12) for getting 100% in the History quiz.

On Thursday during lunchtime, the Humanities department ran its annual Geography scavenger hunt. This event asked students to use their navigational and problem-solving skills to solve various riddles in order to find puzzle pieces that were hidden around the school. Once completed, the puzzle pieces made up the tectonic plates of the Earth. We had so many students across all year levels running around the school using their geospatial skills and knowledge to locate the hidden puzzle pieces, supported by the staff, some who were dressed up in historical figures.

Congratulations to the students who represented the Cattnach House for completing the puzzle first and thank you to the many students who participated in their House teams. A big thank you to Ms Odontiadis, Ms O'Malley, and Ms Ambatzis for organising and setting up the event. Enjoy the photos taken on the day.

Year 9 World Food Bites

Students recently produced empanadas – Mexican street snacks as our practical test for this term. The skills required for a successful product were a flavoursome cool filling and patience when shaping this mix carefully in the short crust pastry. Students then either shallow fried or oven baked them with fantastic results. They were scrumptious! Well done!

Year 12 Legal Studies Excursion to Supreme Court of Victoria

During a school excursion, our class had the incredible opportunity to visit the Victorian Supreme Court's library. Our knowledgeable guides led us through the library, sharing fascinating insights about the court's rich history. We observed the captivating portrait of Justice Marilyn Warren, the first female Chief Justice in Australia, symbolising the progress and barriers overcome within the court system. We were fascinated by the sight of ancient legal texts, case law reports and archival materials that traced the evolution of the Victorian legal system over the years. The visit to the Victorian Supreme Court's library not only deepened our understanding of the law but also inspired us to appreciate the importance of legal research, the pursuit of justice, and the valuable role that such a library plays in supporting emerging legal professionals.

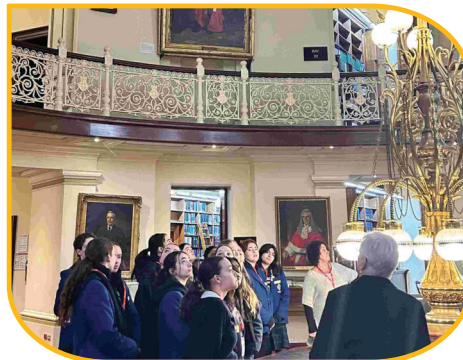

Maria Mak 12D & Grace Tatlis

Year 12

On Monday 17 July, one of the Year 12 VCE Legal Studies classes had the pleasure of attending a tour of the Supreme Court of Victoria. We were lucky enough to be spoken to by the honorable Justice Michelle Quigley. Justice Quigley has previously worked as a barrister, as a member of the Queen's Council and subsequently was appointed the President of VCAT. She now works as a Supreme Court judge in the common law division. With her positive and eloquent manner, she educated us with reference to her experience as a high-ranking legal professional. Firstly, she walked us through her establishment in the legal field, all the way to the moral and ethical implications of cases she currently hears. She also outlined the importance of setting aside personal bias and prejudice, the significance of equality before the law and the gravity of judicial decision making. Justice Quigley is an inspirational example of a female in the legal sphere, and everyone commented on her encouragement and sagacity.

Madeleine Rea

Year 12

Our Legal Studies class had the privilege to visit the Supreme Court and sit in on a case as well as interview a judge. The judge we met was Judge Beale and it was great to hear their journey to becoming a judge and have them answer any questions we had. We then sat in on a murder trial. It was really interesting to watch how the lawyers questioned the expert and see them putting what we have learned into practice. Before we left, we got a tour of the Supreme Court library and had a great time trying to find the cases that we had studied there. It was an amazing experience.

Chantelle Lloyd-Shrimpton
Year 12

A few weeks ago, Unit 3/4 Legal classes made their way into the city to visit the Supreme Court. We were given the opportunity to tour not only the court rooms, but the incredible Supreme Court library as well as meet judges ... Beale and ... Quigley. Both Judges Beale and Quigley spoke about their roles, responsibilities and personal experiences being Supreme Court judges, in addition to giving everybody the chance to ask questions at the end. We got to listen to a murder trial, and overall the classes had a great day getting to experience what we have been learning in the past year in person!

BOOK CHAT
with Molly Crozier

Hi guys!! My name is Molly, and I am in Year 8. I love reading and I find it very relaxing and a bit like a plane trip to wherever I want!

- What is your favourite book?

My favourite book is called 'A Necklace of Raindrops' by Joan Aiken, it was my mum's favourite book when she was about 7. The book is a complication of short, fantasy-style stories. Although it is not at all aimed at Year 8s, it's my comfort book!

- Do you have a favourite character from a book?

My favourite character from any book in the world is Liesel from 'We are Wolves'. I love how she takes on anything and is such a maternal person. But also, I love how she is never afraid to open up about her fears...

- What is the first book you remember reading?

Does anyone remember those readers we used to get in prep with only three words, repeated and repeated? The first book read independently, was called 'Bird Flies Up'. But I also remember being read to. I loved the book 'Tell me a story before I go to bed'. I clearly remember my dad reading it to me, over and over again...

- What is your favourite thing about the library at CGSC?

I love the library at CGSC because it is such a happy place, every time I come in, I feel so welcome. It is so lovely to have an inside place where everyone can come and hang out together!

- What are you reading right now?

Right now, I'm reading 'Starting over at Acorn House', a story about a heartbroken girl who buys a country house on the whim and moves there, into a small, country town to find a total messed-up, old-fashioned house – not at all like the photos online. I'm really enjoying it, it's a pretty easy read though!

- What is the longest book you've ever read? (Or the shortest?)

The longest book I've ever read was either one of the Harry Potter books or a book called 'The Fire Within'.

Sport Report

Year 8 Interschool Volleyball

On Thursday 24 August, two teams of enthusiastic volleyballers went to Kew High School for the Year 8 interschool volleyball competition. I am pleased and proud to report that the students were always well-behaved and polite. We all had a lot of fun!

Our B team were able to win one of their matches. And our A team won their first 2 matches, then went up against Kew High to try and win the day. Each team won one set each, so it was down to a nail-biting 3rd set. It was 12-14, match point to Kew High. We won the next point and then unfortunately Kew were able to take the win. All the students played really hard and displayed excellent sportsmanship, team and volleyball skills. We will get them next year!

A big thank you to Lillie Allen, Maya Knight, Maya Clennett and Ruby McGarry for organising and coaching on the day.

Year 7 Interschool Volleyball

On 30 August, our Year 7 volleyball team stepped onto the court for an interschool tournament at Kew High School. The path to the event was paved with dedication, as the selection process spanned numerous lunchtimes, narrowing down a squad of ten from a pool of over 50 enthusiastic applicants.

Although armed with just a single practice session, the team were confident in their raw athleticism. Their journey kicked off against Balwyn High's B team, a match that showcased this. With Isabel Neeson and Pelenaise Lilomaiaava's powerful serves, the CGSC students overwhelmed their opponents, securing a resounding victory in straight sets.

The momentum carried into the second match against Camberwell High's A team. Despite a shaky start, our team quickly found their rhythm, dominating the game and securing another win.

Our young athletes began to work together as a team in their third match against Balwyn's A team. While the technical finesse of Balwyn initially posed a challenge, our students fought back, demonstrating impressive resilience and teamwork. Although it ended in defeat, the match was neck and neck the whole way.

The final match pitted our team against Kew High's A squad, who had been training twice per week in preparation. Once again, Pelenaise Lilomaiaava's physical prowess shone, this time at the net. However, Kew's technical proficiency proved to be a formidable obstacle, resulting in a third-place finish for CGSC.

Despite their limited knowledge of the game, our students performed exceptionally well. A heartfelt thank you goes to our sports captain Lillie Allen and the coaches Maya Clennett and Ryan Dulay, whose guidance contributed significantly to the team's growth and performance.

2023 Snow Sports

The slopes came alive with a spectacular display of teamwork and talent as the 2023 Canterbury Girls' Secondary College Snow Sports Team took to the slopes of Mount Buller this August. Their passion for snow sports took three of our students to represent CGSC against the best winter athletes the state has to offer.

Year 9 student Winter Kelly claimed 1st place in the State Snowboard Boardercross event and, despite a fall in the Snowboard Giant Slalom, showcased unwavering resilience to secure 5th place. Winter's achievements embody the essence of the team.

Year 7 student Odette Kelly consistently excelled in both Boarder Cross and Giant Slalom and Year 9 student Lucinda Brennan excelled in Ski Cross and Ski Giant Slalom, representing CGSC with dynamism.

A massive shout out goes to Marcelle Kelly, mother of Winter and Odette, who organised transportation and accommodation, giving our students the opportunity to compete. The 2023 CGSC Snow Sports Team embodied the hard work, dedication, and teamwork of our school. Their achievements set a remarkable precedent for CGSC athletes wanting to compete next winter.

Junior Frisbee Interschool Sports Division

On Wednesday 30 August, the Junior Frisbee team competed in the Boroondara Interschool Sports Division. Despite playing in wet conditions, everyone came out firing and gave it a red hot go. Our team consisted of Anna Argyrakos, Charlotte Bridgman, Rose Clayton, Hannah Davies, Mia Ferrari, Sophie Lannu, Evelyn Li, Asha Nance, Isla Payne and Lilo Vun. They played 3 games, coming away with one win and two close losses.

Throughout the day, the students were able to practice and refine their Ultimate Frisbee skills. We are extremely proud of the Junior team as they displayed support for one another and lots of grit on the field.

Music Night @Besen Centre

On 17 August, the Music department's biggest night of the year took place at the Besen Centre. The evening featured our extensive range of performing ensembles from Years 7 to 12. Congratulations to all performers, many of whom were involved in numerous ensembles. The quality of all performances was exceptional!

During the evening, we paid tribute to our Year 12 students with a new addition to the program, "Year 12 Item". The students performed a version of Simple Minds', "Don't you (forget about me)", which they arranged themselves. For such a large cohort of Year 12 students to commit to music the entire way through their secondary schooling, it is a special achievement. I would like to acknowledge the commitment and contribution they have each made to the music department over their time here at CGSC. Mili Clark, Helia Darivandi Shoushtari, MaryAnne Dumitrache, Peta Hemmersbach, Emily Hughes, Rebekah Krialis, Sara Lim, Chantelle Lloyd-Shrimpton, Ava Maccuspie, Kiera Mistica, Olivia Neish, Caitlin Rowling, Leila Subocz and Jasmine Wong.

Planning for 2024

To keep The PA active, we need parent/carer help. Many of the current active PA members have students in Year 12 and will not be at the school to be a part of The PA in 2024.

The PA is primarily a Parent/Carer social committee which supports the school community. Some fundraising activities are undertaken which are both a way the school community can come together and undertake activities that enable connection as well as bringing in some additional funds to support the school to purchase items not funded through other avenues. If you are wanting to be connected with the school community through the PA, please get involved.

PA Meetings

All parents/carers are invited to the next PA meeting on Tuesday 17 October at 7pm. Please note that there is no September meeting due to the school holidays. The final meeting for 2024 will be on Tuesday 28 November (this is the fourth Tuesday of the month, and has been rescheduled due to a clash with Canterbury Celebrates on Tuesday 21 November).

If you cannot make the meetings but have suggestions of how The PA can support the school community, please send through any suggestions to The PA email.

Anne Chipperfield

The Parents' Association President

P.S. If you would like to support the PA, but cannot donate your time or efforts, you can contribute via the PA levy. If you do not want to contribute the full amount of $50, you can nominate a different value. PA funds help raise monies for resources that are not funded by the Government (i.e. language assistants, food tech ovens, dishwashers etc.) and every little bit helps!

Year 11 CLA Class Mock Trial at the Kew Court from the
The Mangarrian from 1985.

YEAR 11 CLS. CLASS MOCK TRIAL AT THE KEW COURT

Once upon a time a legal studies teacher called Mr McKie told his eager year 11 class that Senior Sergeant Norman Ellingham of Kew police had organised an experiment in which C.G.H.S. was to be the guinea pig.

When the yawns had subsided he told us that the plan was for a class to participate in a mock trial in the disused Kew Court. The witness, police prosecutor, court room, magistrate (complete with gavel) and details of crime were to be supplied but we needed to produce the defence lawyer and someone for him to defend.

Mr McKie announced he would be the lawyer but needed in his words "A nice little actress to play a shop lifter". This was followed by a mad rush and stampede of approximately one student to volunteer.

Actually both of them were dragooned, the former by the organiser, the latter by the class but we will keep this fact to ourselves in case it indicates a slight lack of enthusiasm.

Our "volunteer" was one Ruth Kent who was drilled carefully by our gallant leader in her part as Daphne Esme Sweet — an elderly desperado on the hunt for purple tapecutters in Coles.

Mr McKie and Ruth had at their disposal the outlines of the crime and the statements made by the real Mrs Sweet and the store detective. With these they were to work out their defence.

The decided on senility.

The story of this senile shoplifter is as follows. Daphne Esme Sweet of Kew was caught in Coles by a store detective with three purple tapecutters and a makeup compact in her bag. Mrs Sweet said she had already bought the tapecutters and was wanting to exchange them for another colour. Why three? She was giving them to her grandchildren who she was going to visit in Ballarat. To her grandchildren!

What about the compact? She had bought that previously too. The reason that it was unused was no doubt due to the fact that Mrs Sweet did not want to dirty the puff. Crazy? Of course, she's senile. QED.

On the day of the trial we were all waiting to get on the bus when Ruth appeared. She had the results of a lot of labour from the drama department on her face to turn her into a suitably decrepit looking granny.

Meanwhile Mr McKie had realised that his habitual classroom attire would not do for the courtroom and raced to Mr Caulfields office to borrow a gown to conceal his shorts, or rather what his shorts did not conceal.

Half an hour later we clattered into the courtroom and discovered, to the actor's horror, that it was mostly taken up by poles with lights on top of them and grey suited men drifting around with cameras and notebooks.

"Television!" Ruth screeched. "I'm going to be on television!"

A considerably paler Mr McKie assured her that she knew her story well and as she could see he was perfectly calm and collected. To prove the point he dropped the notes on the floor, tripped over his gown and sat at the wrong end on the bar table.

The organiser introduced us to the others who were taking part — the policemen and woman and the store detective from Coles. The magistrate took his place and the cameras started to roll. The witness for bounced happily up to the dock and grinned broadly at the court while she was being sworn in. She was having a ball, Mr McKie was close to catatonia.

After our gallant leader started cross examining his wits returned and things went smoothly. Ruth's turn in the dock came and she gave us a performance which was well worth seeing. Daphne Esme Sweet was fittingly deaf and forgetful, appropriately short sighted and croaky voiced and altogether tastefully senile.

However, she was found guilty.

Still, we must remember that though the police prosecutor Steve Dewbury was quite good, he had done this case before hadn't he?

The magistrate put Mrs Sweet on a twelve month good behaviour bond and asked her to put a sum in the poor box.

It was universally agreed by the class that it was a rather pleasant way of learning the workings of a court and was for a few of us the first glimpse of one in action. Ruth Kent has had an experience which has turned her off a criminal career, Mr McKie tells the lawyers equivalent of "the one that got away" and yours truly is trying to avoid her legal studies teacher who is filing a defamation suit after reading this article. Oh, and they all lived happily ever after.
